Computer Access Authorization and Agreement for Minors

To fulfill its mission of providing public access to information of all types in a wide range of formats, the Moody AFB Library provides access to Internet resources. In doing so, the Library does not monitor and has no control over the information accessed through the Internet and assumes responsibility only for information provided on its home pages.

The Internet offers access to many valuable local, national and international sources of information. However, some information found on the Internet may be inaccurate, incomplete, dated or offensive to some individuals. A good information consumer must evaluate the validity and appropriateness of information found.

Rules Governing Use

Due to the limited resources available to provide Internet access, the Library may set limits, for example, on use of large files of still or moving images or sound or on downloading files in any medium. The Library reserves the right to limit the amount of time an individual can devote to a single session if there are others waiting. Users will be charged $.05 a page printed in the computer lab. Print outs may be picked up at the circulation desk. Print outs may be picked up at the circulation desk.

Users May NOT:

- Use the network to make unauthorized entry into other informational or communication services or resources
- Distribute unsolicited advertising
- Invade the privacy of others
- Make any attempt to damage computer equipment or software
- Download or Upload ANY programs to computer hard drives
- Engage in any activity that is harassing, illegal or defamatory
- Violate Copyright laws
- Violations may result in loss of access and notification of the Sponsor's Commanding Officer

Security:

Be aware the Internet is not a secure medium and that third parties may be able to obtain information regarding user's activities.

Access for Minors:

Sponsors must assume responsibility for deciding what library resources is appropriate for their own children. Parent or legal guardians should guide their children in the use of the Internet and inform them about materials they should not see. The Sponsor is held liable for a dependent's misuse of computers. Children ages 10-17 MUST have a letter of Permission signed by the sponsor on file to access computers. A parent or legal guardian must supervise children 9 and younger at all times.
